

California State University, San Bernardino CSUSB ScholarWorks

Friday Bulletin

CSUSB Archives

5-17-1968

May 17 1968

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: <http://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin>

Part of the Educational Leadership Commons, Educational Methods Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Friday Bulletin, "May 17 1968" (1968). Friday Bulletin. Paper 89.
<http://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/89>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the CSUSB Archives at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.

CALIFORNIA STATE COLLEGE AT SAN BERNARDINO

May 17, 1968

The BULLETIN

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM IS TAKING SHAPE

Dr. Arleigh Williams, Dean of Students at the University of California at Berkeley, will deliver the College's commencement address on Saturday, June 8.

Mr. Scott Showler, president of the Class of 1968, has been selected as the student speaker at the College's second annual commencement exercises.

The 15th Air Force Band from March Air Force Base will play for the commencement this year.

Approximately 70 students will participate in the ceremony.

The deadline for ordering caps and gowns has passed; however, late orders still will be accepted at the Bookstore until May 31. If the late-ordered cap and gown does not arrive in time for the ceremony, the person's money will be refunded.

All College personnel and their families are invited to attend the commencement exercises.

A reception will follow the ceremony and everyone is welcome.

"INTIMATE RELATIONS"

PLAYS TONIGHT, TOMORROW

The concluding two performances of Jean Cocteau's human comedy "Intimate Relations" will be held at 8:15 tonight and tomorrow night in C-116, the College Little Theater.

Turnaway crowds are likely; therefore, persons wishing to insure a seat should purchase their ticket in advance at the Division of Humanities office. Tickets cost 75 cents for faculty, staff and students, and $1.50 for non-College persons. There are no children's tickets for this play.

SUMMER SESSION PRE-REGISTRATION MAY 27-28

Pre-registration for summer session classes will be held on Monday, May 27 and Tuesday, May 28. Courses in Business Administration and Economics will be offered this year for the first time.

The session runs from June 18 through July 26. Registration for new and returning students who did not pre-register is June 17. Formal admission to the College is not necessary.

FACULTY SENATE
RE-ELECTS BARNES

Dr. Ronald Barnes (Humanities) has been re-elected chairman of the Faculty Senate for 1968-69.

Other officers will be Dr. James Crum (Natural Sciences), secretary, and Mr. Arthur Nelson (Librarian), vice-chairman. Dr. Crum was also re-elected to his office.

Dr. Robert Fisk (Education) and Mr. Nelson will serve as representatives to the Statewide Academic Senate. Dr. George McMichael (English) and Dr. Alfred Egge (Biology) will be the first and second alternates, respectively.

Members of the 1968-69 CSCSB Faculty Senate, in addition to the officers, will be:

Dr. Mary Cisar and Dr. Ralph Petrucci (faculty at large), Dr. Fisk (Statewide Senate), Dr. Arlo Harris (Natural Sciences), Dr. Ward McAfee (Social Sciences), Dr. Leslie Van Marter (Humanities), and Dr. Robert West (Education).

President John M. Pfau and Dr. Gerald Scherba, Vice President for Academic Affairs, are non-voting members of the Faculty Senate.

PEOPLE IN Marchand Archuletta, a freshman political science major,
THE NEWS was crowned "Miss Redlands" last week. Miss Archuletta received a $300 scholarship.

+

Alfred Egge (Biology) earlier this week addressed honor students of the Alpha Gamma Sigma society of the Riverside City College on "Inborn Errors of Metabolism."

+

Bruce Golden (English) will discuss "The Relevance of Memory" at the second annual Chancellor's Conference on English Composition, to be held at UC, Riverside, May 25. The conference will be attended by approximately 300 high school and junior college English teachers.

+

Leo Kreter (Music), who was voted the College's "Professor of the Year" by the staff of the student newspaper, was guest of honor last night at a banquet sponsored by the Pawprint.

+

Paul Johnson (Philosophy) was recently elected vice president of the San Bernardino Valley Audubon Society. He will be in charge of conservation matters for the society. Mr. Johnson asks that persons interested in attending meetings or field trips of the Audubon Society contact him for information. It is not necessary to be a member to participate.

GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS have been received at the Bookstore and may be picked up at any time.

SQUARE DANCING
TO BEGIN AT 8 P.M.

The ASB sponsored, All-College Square Dance will be held tonight. Professional caller Don Bailey from San Bernardino will give instruction beginning promptly at 8 p.m. to those who wish to learn.

According to John Humphries, Activities Advisor, previous square dancing experience is not necessary.

The dance will be held at the Volley Ball Courts in the P.E. area, and faculty and staff as well as students are welcome. Admission is free of charge; refreshments will be served.

Please note: The movie originally scheduled for tonight has been canceled to avoid conflict with the square dance.

DR. ISPAHANI ACCEPTS
INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND POSITION

Dr. Ahmed Ispahani, part-time lecturer in Economics, who is Chairman of the Economics Department at La Verne College, has been granted a year's leave of absence from La Verne to accept a position with the International Monetary Fund.

His work, advising governments on monetary policy, will take him to Geneva, Switzerland, until mid-year, when he will move to a similar position in Tehran, Iran, with the Central Bank of Iran.

Dr. Ispahani plans on leaving for Europe later this summer where he will stay on vacation until September when he will begin work in Geneva.

VISITORS
ON CAMPUS

John E. Husing, candidate for the Democratic nomination in the 33rd Congressional District, spoke on campus last Wednesday as guest of the Young Democrats.

+

Only seven visitors took the regular Sunday guided tour May 12; but they insisted upon touring the campus despite a steady downpour of rain. More than 1,000 have taken guided tours since January.

+

Members of the Association of American University Women held their annual Spring Meeting on campus last Saturday, where they had lunch in the Cafeteria; heard a reading given by Mrs. Ronald Barnes; and later went on a tour of the campus.

"MACBIRD" PRODUCTION A theater production of "'MacBird' and the 'Now' COMING NEXT TUESDAY Protest" will be presented Tuesday, May 21 at 11:30 in PS-10. Students from the Speech Department of the University of Southern California will bring the highly controversial play by Barbara Garson to Cal State San Bernardino.

"MacBird" is viewed by the production's director, Dr. Janet Bolton, as "a singularly profane illustration of nihilism which is devoid of responsibility and hope; everything is leveled, nothing is sacred, and no alternatives are proposed." The USC presentation, in addition to the "MacBird" scenes, draws material from many varied sources, such as contemporary poets, newspaper articles, periodicals, and books.

This will be the last guest performance of the Noon Series. Admission is free and College personnel are invited to bring guests. The public is also invited, free of charge.

WEEKEND One-day tennis tournament of men's and women's singles,
ACTIVITIES - tomorrow, Saturday. Be on the courts at 10 a.m.

+

Newman Foundation Beach Party originally scheduled for tomorrow has been canceled.

+

"Intimate Relations" presented by Players of the Pear Garden tonight and tomorrow night, 8:15, Little Theater.

COMING Next Friday, May 24, the ASB will present a ski film, ATTRACTIONS - "Some Like it Cold," at 8 p.m. in PS-10. Admission is free and open to the public.

DIRECTORY Add:
CHANGES Ext. 252 Moore, Ronald U. (Patricia), Stock Clerk, Receiving
4054 F Street, San Bernardino 92407, TU 2-1964.

Change of Address: Charles Stark - 4015 Mountain Dr., Space 6,
San Bernardino, 92407.